

SAVING THE EARTH WITH EARTHDAY

This summer, I worked on various campaigns within EarthDay Network, writing informational articles for site visitors, creating content for social media channels, and gaining insight into the workings of a non-profit organization.

40 MILLION TONS OF TEXTILES

sent to landfills every year by the fashion industry.

30% OF US FARMLAND

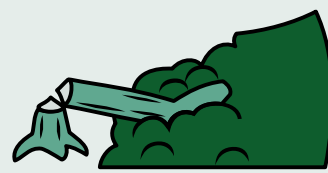

owned by corporations.

8% OF ALL GLOBAL GREENHOUSE EMISSIONS

caused by the fashion industry.

150 MILLION TREES CUT DOWN

each year to make fabrics.

KEY INTERNSHIP COMPONENTS

Website content development

Conducting interviews

Social media marketing

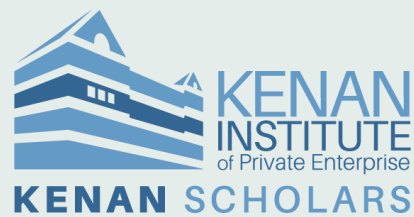

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Non-profit organizations rely heavily on partnerships
- Non-profit organization internships give interns maximum freedom in creating and implementing their own projects
- A lot can get done if everyone is passionate about the mission

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Kenan Scholars public sector stipend was used to support this internship experience.
